

The CIPS at the FEHOVA in Budapest

The CIPS has been invited to the Budapest International Fishing Exposition “FEHOVA”, one of the most important fishing fair in Central Europe.

The President of the CIPS, Mr. Ferenc Szalay has been invited as well to the Hungarian Sports Fishing Gala, held during the international exposition. The Hungarian Federation's Premisation Gala was the event when the federation has celebrated and has premiated the best Hungarian sports fishermen of the year 2016.

After the welcome speech of Dr. Lajos Szűcs, President of the Hungarian National Angling Federation (MOHOSZ) the President of the CIPS transmit the congratulations of the CIPS Presidium.

- The Hungarian sports fishing is counted on the top-line of the international competitions, since twenty years they are among the probable winners in every world and European championships in the majority of the sport fishing disciplines - said Ferenc Szalay - The international confederation highly appreciates these performances of the sports fishing in Hungary. I could confirm this is – into the medals and the high results of course – the biggest success of the Hungarian sports fishing – underlined the President of the CIPS.
