

44th CIPS CONGRESS 2023 – ROME – ITALY – 27/30 APRIL 2023

HOST CITY ROME

Possis nihil Urbe Roma visere maius

According to the tradition, Rome was founded on April 21st 753 b.c. by Romulus.

Today Rome is the most populous and largest city in Italy, it is the center of the Italian national and politic life and the center of Catholic religion.

Symbols of Rome, beside the municipal coat-of-arms, are the Capitoline Wolf, a bronze sculpture of a she-wolf suckling twin infants Romulus and Remo; the Coliseum, the largest Amphitheatre of the Roman world that was recognized in 2007 as one of the 7 wonders of the modern world (the only one in Europe); the Cupolone, the big dome of Saint Peter's Basilica in Vatican City, which dominates the full city and represents the Christian World.

The religious architectures of Rome are an essential element of the Capitoline city's monumental heritage: they are the symbol of the cultural, social and artistic importance of the religious side of the full history of Rome.

There are four patriarchal Basilicas in Rome: "San Giovanni in Laterano", "San Pietro", "San Paolo fuori le mura" and "Santa Maria Maggiore".

Moreover, Rome is rich in fountains and aqueducts: among its monumental fountains, most of which were built by Popes at the beginning of the modern age, there are the Trevis' fountain, Acqua Felice's fountain (or Mosé), the Quattro Fontane, the Barcaccia's fountain, Quattro Fiumi's fountain.
