

45th CIPS CONGRESS 2024

45th C.I.P.S. CONGRESS

CAPE TOWN – SOUTH AFRICA 18 -20 April 2024

Cape Town, city and seaport, legislative capital of South Africa and capital of Western Cape province. The city lies at the northern end of the Cape Peninsula some 30 miles (50 kilometers), at its southernmost boundary, north of the Cape of Good Hope. Because it was the site of the first European settlement in South Africa, Cape Town is known as the country's "mother city."

Cape Town has a beautiful setting: parts of the city and its suburbs wind about the steep slopes of Table Mountain (3,563 feet [1,086 meters] high) and neighboring peaks and rim the shores of Table Bay; other parts lie on the flats below the slopes or stretch southward across the flats to False Bay. The city covers an area of 116 square miles (300 square kilometers)

Cape Town is the most suited destination for your vacation and is the perfect location for hosting the 45th CIPS Congress. The South African Sport Anglers and Casting Confederation (SASACC) has decided to propose this beautiful city, after consideration of the world-renowned Table Mountain which is recognized as a world heritage site and the pristine nature found in the Cape Town area.

The SASACC, the Western Province and the city of Cape Town are ready to welcome all the delegates from all the Nations, the board members of CIPS and the board members of FIPS Ed, FIPS Mer and FIPS Mouche to this event.

The closest airport is the Cape Town International Airport, which is located 18,6Km from the Cape Town City Centre.

Table Mountain and Cableway

Table Mountain is a must-see for all Cape Town visitors. The panoramic views from the top of its 3,563-foot (1,086-meter) peak are well worth the climb—though you won't have to break a sweat thanks to the mountain's two cableways, each with a revolving car ferrying passengers to the summit. Once at the top, a series of hiking trails show off Table Mountain National Park's geographic features, while daredevils can test their mettle by rappelling from the upper cable station. Prices from € 25

Please note that this activity is only accessible if the weather permits it. If this activity is cancelled, the participants will enjoy their second activity of choice.

Cape Town City Sightseeing Hop-On Hop-Off Tour
Discover the many attractions Cape Town has to offer on a double-decker sightseeing bus tour. Choose a Classic (1-day) or Premium (2-day ticket) prices from € 19, and hop-on and off the bus whenever you like. Travel on the 4 tour routes, and enjoy multilingual commentary.
